

SEPT

10

“DA Pancrazio’s”

Piazza del Biscione 92, 00186 Roma

“Delightful Discovery”

“The history of the place is the attraction”

Da Pancrazio’s is built over the Theater of Pompey’s ruins, the well known 1st century b.C. theater where Julius Caesar was murdered. Our place has become famous in years for the unique halls where you can dine, but also for the taste of the typical roman cuisine purposed, a treasure prepared every day from our chefs following recipes we preserve since 1922.