

6th International Conference on
Ionic Liquids for Electrochemical Devices
Rome, Italy, 9 - 11 September 2018

Trevi Fountain and the Ancient Water Streets

September 9th - 6.30 pm

Fontana di Trevi, surely the most famous and spectacular fountain of Rome, built by the sculptor Gian Lorenzo Bernini in 1629, to order of Pope Urbano VIII.

The VicusCaprarius, also called “The City of Water”, is an archaeological area in the quarter of Trevi. This spectacular site is a recent excavation of an imperial roman quarter. The area is situated 8 meters underground, in a suggestive atmosphere, and preserves the look of the activity in the center of Rome from I till V century a.D.

The visit includes:

- Tour Leader
- Official Guide of Rome
- Ticket for the Ancient Water Museum
- Aperitif

Meeting point:

Trevi Fountain (in front of the Church of Vincenzo and Anastasio) at 6.30 pm.

Price per person: € 43,00 (VAT 22% included)

*The tour will only be held with a minimum of 20 participants.
Online registration with individual invoice.*

